CONCERTED EFFORT BEING MADE TO GET MEN HERE

Washington Steel and Ordnance Company Sends Representative to Indianapolis Today in Quest of Workmen to Come to Alexandria—Advertisements to be Published in Twenty-Five Newspapers Calling for Additional Workingmen.

In further proof of the effort being made by the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company to induce men to come to Alexandria who will be employed at the big steel plant across the river, the company today sent its representative, Mr. E. A. Lycett, to Indianapolis to secure 150 and as many more as possible to proceed to this city at once. They also gave orders to have advertisements inserted in twenty-five newspapers calling for men in Virginia and surrounding states to whom they will provide employment upon their arrival here.

All those men the company hopes to get located in this city at the earliest moment possible. This action is rendered necessary in order to take care of the additional new business which is coming to the company from various sources.

In return for the benefits which will accrue to Alexandria the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company asks that the residents of this city do their part in furnishing homes and boarding places for the men. This the city can well afford to do and no doubt will, but it is essential that all get busy NOW—today. It is a case where quick, prompt action is absolutely necessary.

It is very seldom that a going, established company like the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company can be found willing to do as much as it has already done toward bringing people to a city and thus increase its population, as the only return the company will receive from it is from the labor of the men to whom it will give work.

As has been previously stated by the Gazette, it is Alexandria's opportunity to help itself to a larger population—men who earn money—much of which will be expended among the merchants and householders right here in the city.

Consequently, if our people know of men living away from Alexandria who are out of employment, they should put them in touch with the proposition here. If they know of a boarding place that can take more boarders let that fact be known to the Secretary of the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce. In that way they can "lend a hand" to help all concerned and that will include their own city of Alexandria.

It is hoped that a sufficient number may be obtained to warrant the starting of the new ferry boat on its regular trips from Alexandria to the steel plant next week. The Washington Steel and Ordnance Company has demonstrated its sincerity in the matter by going ahead and purchasing a steamer to be used for the ferry and will furnish the work for the men. Now let there be no doubt in regard to Alexandria doing its share.

MAY SHELL PETROGRAD.

Vast German Fleet Now Reported at Entrance to Gulf of Finland Ready For Drive.

London, Sept. 7.—Germany is preparing to turn her battle fleet to the job of blasting the Russian fleet and bombard Petrograd.

Within the last week the presence in the Baltic of submarines, destroyers, mine sweepers, cruisers, and even heavier warships has been reported, culminating today in dispatches indicating a Greman fleet at the entrance to the Gulf of Finland.

This would put the enemy vessels about 300 miles distant from Petrograd.

If Germany chooses she can concentrate a big squadron for a sea drive on Russia. The Kiel canal would permit transfer of any necessary ships now is North Sea German ports into the Baltic.

Two great Russian naval depots and fortresses guard the capital. They are Reval, close to the mouth of the gulf, and Kronstadt, only a score of miles from Petrograd. The gulf itself is thickly sowed with mines.

The Russian fleet is known to be at Reval. It is so far outranked by the German fleet, however, that it is doubtful if they could impede any formidable squadron.

There was considerable doubt expressed here that Germany would dare shift any of her high seas fleet from the North sea and Heligoland through the Kiel canal to the Baltic because of the constant German fear of an attack by the great British battle fleet. Nevertheless she has plenty of vessel outranging and outranking the Russian warships which could be spared for such a campaign.

TO DEMAND TERRITORY

French Premier Says Peace Will Come With Restoration of Alsace-Lorraine.

Paris, Sept. 7.—France will not compromise on the question of recovery of Alsace and Lorraine.

The declaration was made by Premier Ribot yesterday in an address at the celebration of the anniversary of the battle of the Marne. He said France would not consent to diplomatic discussion as to whether the provinces should be restored.

"France makes pretentions only for the recovery of its own, to regain possession of its provinces, wrenched from it by the odious abuse of force," he added. "Let no one ask France to compromise upon that question. The nation could not do it without betraying the cause of justice.

"What a preface would be given to the peace which it is sought to found upon the rights of peoples, if century ago should be consecrated anew.

"The restoration of Alsace and Lorraine is not a question that may be given over to discussion by diplomats. It is the very condition of the establishment of the rights of nations which ought to guarantee peace in the future against fresh violence."

200 TROOPS DROWN

Barge Upsets During Storm on California Gulf.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 7.—A report was received here early yesterday that 200 Mexican soldiers were drowned late Wednesday night by the sinking of a Mexican government vessel in the Gulf of Lower California.

The message, which came from private sources in San Diego, is not confirmed, but it is given considerable credence by Carranza officials here.

According to these officials, many Mexican troops have been moved in the gulf on barges towed by small steamers, and it is considered probable that one of these barges overturned.

POWDER PLANT IN VIRGINIA

Nitrate Supply Committee Recommends More Appropriations for Explosives.

Establishment of the projected government nitrate and powder plant in Southwestern Virginia was recommended to the War Department yesterday by the nitrate supply committee. The statement was made at the department that the exact site has not yet been selected.

Out of the appropriation of $20,000,000 for the supply of nitrates, the committee recommends that $3,000,000 be employed in the erection of a synthetic ammonia plant, and that negotiations be entered into with the General Chemical Company for its synthetic ammonia process. It also recommends an expenditure of $600,000 for a nitric acid plant and $200,000 for perfecting the Bucher process for the production of sodium cyanide and ammonia. The American rights to this process are controlled by the Nitrates Products Co., which has offered them to the government.

The committee also recommends the appropriation of $100,000 for further investigations into processes of nitrogen production, and expresses the opinion that not less than 500,000 tons of Chile saltpeter as a reserve should be immediately accumulated.

LABOR MEN DISAGREE.

Successor to Labor Commissioner Causes More or Less Fricton.

With the Central Trades and Labor Council divided in its support of Howard T. Colvin, of Alexandria, for the position of labor commissioner, the belief is that the plum will possibly go to another city. The names of Major Charles G. Kizer, of Norfolk and Frank S. Lyon, of Newport News, are being mentioned in connection with the appointment.

James B. Doherty, who has held the post for a number of years, says he will not agree to serve again.

It appears that the labor council of Richmond is badly divided in its allegiance to the two men first named. Mr. Colvin was for many years a resident of Alexandria, but he has made his home in Richmond for a long time, being chief clerk in the legislative reference bureau. There has been dscontent in labor circles of the state. Mr. Colvn losing out in a contest a few years ago in Fredericksburg, when one of the stormiest sessions in the history of the state federation of labor was convened there.

MRS. BULL'S STATEMENT

Says She Was To Have Married Boston Chemist.

Boston, Mass., Sept. 7.—Mrs. Nina T. Bull, of Arlington, Va., yesterday explained to the police her relations with Harold A. Whitman, her chemist fiance, whose death by a fracture of the skull in a dump is an unsolved mystery.

They were engaged, she told Chief Kendall, of the Somerville police, and planned to be married in October. She expected to obtain a divorce in Virginia early next month.

In a spirit of fun, because the marriage was to be so soon, she explained, she signed "Nina Whitman" and addressed Harold as "Loving Husband" in letters which were found on his body.

Mrs. Bull is a blonde of striking appearance. She is of medium height. Her face yesterday bore traces of great suffering and it was plain that she had lost much sleep since learning of Whitman's violent death.

Willis C. Goss, a cousin of the murdered man, yesterday interjected a further element of mystery into the case when he said that Mrs. Bull received none of three telegrams sent her by the Whitman family informing her of Harold's death. She learned of it through a newspaper dispatch.

FIRE NEAR BIG COAL PIERS

Incendiary Blaze Damages Viaduct Bridge on the Lamberts Point Line at Norfolk.

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 7.—Fire believed to be of incendiary origin damaged the viaduct bridge of the Norfolk Railway and Light Company, on the Lambert Point line, near the coal piers of the Norfolk and Western Railway Company. The bridge spans the railroad tracks less than half a mile from the great piers, one of the largest in the world, now working night and day on coal contracts of the United States Navy and entente allies.

Early discovery of the fire and quick work by the fire department saved the structure from serious damage. Car service was delayed only for a short time.

I. W. W. ACTIVITIES.

Federal Authorities Make Descent on Publishing Houses in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 7.—Raids by Federal authorities last night on three publishing offices and a book store added to the mass of alleged evidence of treason already in the hands of the government.

Several newspapers and publishing offices were raided.

Evidence already in the Department of Justice shows that the I. W. W. activities have embarrassed industries—particularly the Western mines—producing war material. This evidence shows, too, that the I. W. W. proposed to spread its doctrines of violence all over the land.

The Patriotic Education Society yesterday charged directly that Austrians and Bulgars are responsible for these disorders, acting for the German secret service. The extent of I. W. W. plans is indicated by the openly-expressed fear that they might try to capture the Minneapolis session of the American Alliance for Labor and Democracy, and distort its deliberations into I. W. W. propaganda.

The government has ordered the leaders, such as Big Bull Haywood, James Rowan, Dan Sheridan and others prosecute to the limit if seized documents prove as serious as the government believes they are.

That she was put out of her home without cause by her husband, Leonard C. Whiting, was testified by Mrs. Ruby L. That was on April 7, 1914, and since then Mrs. Whiting has not seen or heard from her husband who is living in New Haven, Conn. They were married December 12, 1911, in Alexandria, Va. JUST SHARE OF TAXES

Attorney-General Has Evidence of Wide Discrepancies in Railroad Valuations.

That the wildest discrepancies exist between the assessment of railway properties and real estate similarly situated, but owned by individuals, are the facts supported by affidavits in the hands of Attorney-General Pollard. The Attorney-General has called upon the Commonwealth attorneys and other people throughout the State to submit any facts that show that unjust and unequal taxation exists.

When questioned yesterday, Mr. Pollard said that he had affidavits from Charlottesville, Danville and Manassas, all of which made known the valuations that had been placed against the property of the railroads. It is claimed that the station property at Manassas is assessed at $125, while the property of adjacent owners, not judged more valuable than that of the railroad, is assessed at $2,000. So far as can be learned, no reason is given for the difference in the valuation of private and corporate property, while it is known that the one is assessed by local officers and the other by the State Corporation Commission.

A determined effort is being made by the city of Charlottesville to have the State Corporation Commission increase the property valuation of corporations in that city.

MAY SEIZE DUTCH VESSELS.

Special Commission Arrives to Confer With Officials Here.

The United States is prepared to resort to extreme measures even commandeering, unless the special Dutch mission, which arrived here late yesterday will accept the proposal of the Experts Administrative Board to place Dutch ships, now in American harbors, into trade with Australia and Java.

It was learned at the Shipping Board yesterday that the government feels it has all the power necessary to commandeer the Dutch vessels, about 100 in number, and of about 250,000 tons capacity. This step has not been taken, it was stated, because of a belief that A. G. A. van Ealde, the head of the Dutch mission and the shipping experts who accompany him, will see the equity of the proposal made by the Exports Board and agree to co-operate in the movement of wheat and sugar to the United States.

LOSE FIRST POINT

House Committee Approves Appropriation In Great War Budget Bill

Washington, Sept. 7.—The first round in the Congressional fight over legislation paving the way for the taking over of Kent Island for an army proving ground went against the islanders by the narrowest possible margin late yesterday, when the House Committee on Appropriations, in reporting out the $4,000,000 war budget bill, refused by a tie vote to specifically exempt the island as a site for the proposed gun and ammunition range in the Chesapeake bay. The committee then unanimously approved the $3,000,000 appropriation recommended by the War Department with which to buy and establish a new proving ground.

The action of the committee was taken after a sharp debate and by a test vote of 6 to 6, two members of the committee declining to vote and seven being absent.

ENDORSE COUNCIL'S ACT

Chamber of Commerce Passes Resolutions Favoring Position Taken by Board of Aldermen and City Council.

As will be noted by the following resolutions, the Alexandria Chamber of Commerce heartily endorses the action taken at the joint session of the Board of Aldermen and City Council concerning the offer made to the city of Alexandria by the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company, believing that it will be for the best interests of the city.

Resolved. By the Chamber of Commerce, Inc., of the City of Alexandria, Virginia, in meeting assembled, that this Chamber heartily indorses the resolution passed at a joint meeting of the Common Council and Board of Aldermen of the City of Alexandria, held on August 29, 1917, relative to the acceptance of the proposal of the Washington Steel and Ordnance Company regarding the establishment of a ferry between Alexandria and Giesboro Point, and furthermore, they urge the Honorable City Council that they carry the matter to a successful conclusion, that Alexandria may be made the home city of a large and successful enterprise by which every resident and tax payer will be benefitted. And further

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to His Honor, the Mayor, both branches of the City Council, and published in the Alexandria Gazette.

CADORNA'S STEAM ROLLER

Italians Driving Toward Key to Vienna and Trieste.

Washington, Sept 7.—Simultaneous with the resumption of Gen. Cadorna's double drive toward Lubiano, the Key to Vienna and Trieste, the Italian Embassy here yesterday received the admission of the distinguished German military critic, Maj. Morarth, of the gravity of the situation on this front.

Maj. Morarth, writing in the Rester Lloyd of Budapest, declares that the dash of Gen. Cardona's troops in this offensive surpasses anything ever done before. The same critic says the weight of the drive has been felt especially on these three sectors: Between Dossofaiti and the Hermada, in the Vipacco Valley, and on the Bainezza plateau.

Maj. Morarth admits that progress has been made on the whole front. In his opinion the fall of Monte Santo has put the whole Austrian army in a very precarious position. The capture of Selo on the Adriatic littoral, he believes, menaces the whole Hermada position, powerful as that position is.

Of the active resumption of the Caderna offensive, yesterday's dispatch to the embassy says:

"The Italian offensive has resumed a character of great activity, especially on the levels of the Pamsizza. The enemy has been pushed beyond the Chiapovano Valley. East of Corizia, one by one, the Austrian positions are falling into Italian hands. The hills of St. Katherine and St. Mark are cleared of Austrians. Austrian counter-attacks have failed utterly without even checking the organized pressure of the Italian army."

A further resumption of activity all along the front up to the Swiss border is indicated. Slight advances have been made, and the Austrians have been prevented from moving troops from these sectors to the Isonzo.

DROPS BOMBS ON HOSPITAL

Grand Headquarters of the French Army in France, Sept. 7.—The Vandelaincourt Hospital, in the region of Verdun, was again bombarded by German aviators for six and a half hours Wednesday night. Nineteen persons were killed and twenty-six wounded. The huts attacked contained only severely wounded men, who were unable to move from their cots.

The hostile airplanes flew over the hospital every twenty minutes from 8:30 o'cock in the evening until 3 o'clock in the morning.

London, Sept. 7.—On the night of September 4-5 German aircraft dropped bombs on three hospitals.

SUGGESTIONS FROM ESTHER.

The Book of Esther is justly regarded by literary persons as one of the most suggestive ever written. Unlike most books in the sacred canon, the name of God does not appear in the production, nor is anything in the way of the miraculous described. It is simply the working of an unseen hand—a divine providence—which causes a cruel and unscrupulous man to unconsciously dig his own gravve and fall into it.

Haman, son of Hammadatha, the Agagite, was the last of the Amalakites, a nation which Joshua was ordered to exterminate when the Israelites entered the Promised Land. This degenerate became prime minister of Ahasuerus, and he had inherited the hatred of his forefathers for the Hebrew race. We cannot reproduce the Book of Esther in this article, as even a synopsis of the machinations of the Agagite and his awful fall would require too much space. The entire book, however, can be read in a short time, and this is done in orthodox Hebrew synagogues on the annual recurrence of the Feast of Purim, generally known as the Feast of Esther, a sort of Christmas season among the Jews.

Our purpose in alluding to this intensely interesting production was to draw a parallel between the haughty Haman and another specimen of the genus homo Haman's wrath was directed against one nation only; the individual who is now engaged in shedding the blood of his fellow-creatures would exterminate the race in order to accomplish his purposes.

Haman had but one Mordecai at his gate who refused to bow to him. The individual who is engaged in the work of slaughtering his fellowmen has millions of Mordecais who not only refuse to do him homage, but who will fight him unto death.

Nearly nineteen hundred years have elapsed since anything of a miraculous nature has taken place upon this planet. The heavens have been silent since the Author of the Christian religion left this sin-tossed earth. Providence, however, has never ceased to work and we may rest assured that the mills of the Gods are still grinding, although, to us, they may seem to move slowly. The man who is now guiding the cruel juggernaut is believed to be heading towards a chasm which will bring his career to a sudden termination—as sudden and as unexpected as that into which the son of Hammadatha tumbled. Let Providence deal with this modren minotaur.

ITALY'S ANSWER TO RUSSIA.

While Berlin is rejoicing over German triumphs in Russia, Vienna is growing nervous over Italian victories on her frontier.

The Baltimore Sun propounds this pertinent query.

What shall it profit Prussianism if it gain a vast area of Russian ice and snow and lose its Austrian partner? The latter may be as near realization as the former. Cadorna's advance has undoubtedly not only inflicted great military loss, but begins to constitute a serious menace. If it is not checked soon, who can say where the high tide of Italian victory will be stayed?

Italy now needs coal and steel more than men; she has not been able yet to utilize her full strength. If the Allies at their coming conference in Paris can help to supply these and other war needs, Italy may turn the trick that has defied Allied skill and courage elsewhere.

Germany's bright spot in Russia is fully offset by the zone of Austrian gloom along the Italian frontier. The Russian bear is an awkward animal to tame and of very uncertain temper. And while he is being tamed unpleasant things may happen in the rear. As fast as Germany dams up the flood at one point it threatens her from another. She is seeking to perform the impossible. There can be but one end to such an enterprise.

THE RAID ON THE I. W. W.

Somewhat behind schedule time, the Department of Justice has achieved its long-threatened raid of the I. W. W. headquarters and branch offices.

As the Washington Herald says, the government has been altogether too conservative and cautious in dealing with seditious alienism at home. When the United States is on a war basis it is quite ready to convert itself into an autocracy for the time being. It does not fear the charge of "Kaiserism" leveled in the direction of the White House whenever some profiteer is deprived of his loot, some contractor is disappointed, or some zealous organizations which have been preaching pernicious anti-national doctrines are taken firmly in hand. In other words, the spirit of the nation today is for a much firmer and stronger policy in dealing with the domestic enemies of the nation than the Federal government so far has displayed.

GERMAN MOVEMENTS.

The recently reported removal of the civilian population from the war zone in Flanders is causing much interest.

It is too early to do more than speculate upon the meaning of the current reports. Yet it is manifest what they may mean. Yet it is also evident that the Germans have no expectation of permanently holding Northern France or Belgium. Consequently, there is every reason to suppose that they will, from time to time, shorten their lines whenever there is profit for them in such an operation, either through the release of men for use elsewhere or through avoidance of heavy and sterile sacrifices necessary to retain ground that will ultimately have to be evacuated.

VIRGINIA NEWS

D. M. Langhorne, railroad contractor and one of Lynchburg's wealthiest citizens, died yesterday evening at his summer home near Scottsville after a short illness, aged 52. For many years he was partner in business with his cousin. C. D. Langhorne, of Albemarle county, father of the celebrated beauties, the Langhorne sisters.

Up to a late hour last night about 700 drafted men from the various counties of Virginia and West Virginia, had arrived at Camp Lee, Petersburg, making in all about 1,200 men in the past two days. The entire quotas from the two Virginias, in all about 2,300 men, are expected to be at Camp Lee by Monday. By September 20, it is said, there will be fully 20,000 drafted men at the camp.

Because a forewoman in a Richmond factory called one of her girl workers a "liar" and the rest walked out in rebuke, five carloads of baking powder for government cantonments through the South were held up yesterday.

The most destructive hailstorm in half a century visited Charlottesville and immediate section late yesterday afternoon. Many of the stones measured over an inch in diameter. They were of solid ice and resembled a human eye. Hundreds of window glasses in private residences and business houses were scattered, while in the two greenhouses at the university, 1,200 panes were broken and flowers and plants ruined by falling glass. Hail fell for seven minutes, followed by a downpour of rain. In the vicinity the apple and tobacco crops were damaged and fodder stripped by the hail.

The State Corporation Commission yesterday fined the Southern Railway Company $500 and the costs of the investigation because the railway had gven W. S. Wolf, sheriff of Fauquier countyy, an annual pass over its line. The defending company made no denial ad it developed durng the hearing that the practice is one in general operation throughout the State. Sheriffs are granted passes, and as a result of this discrimnation, do not collect fees from the railroads for servces which they may be called upon to perform. Chairman C. B. Garnett and Commissioner Rhea concurred in the opinon against the corporation, the chairman being particularly stern in his arraignment of the practices of the railroad company.

Clinton L. Batt, a merchant, of Reynolds Store, Frederick county, went to Winchester Wednesday night to purchase goods was robbed of about $400 while asleep in a rooming house. His bed fellow, Owen Anderson, of Hampshire county, West Virginia, is in jail charged with the crime. Anderson confessed to the police and assisted in locating Batt's cash, checks and notes. Some had been hidden in an old buggy, some in a pocket flashlight and the rest on a farm near town. Anderson appeared to be simple-minded when called by the draft board recently and was discharged, but the authorities say he is intelligent.

The body of a well-dressed man was found yesterday morning by the side of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad track near Milford, in Caroline county, by track walker. The man had on a blue serge suit, carried a gold watch and had $18.89 in cash. He had a bank book of a Richmond bank, with the name "L. J. Clark," showing a deposit of $100. The man's head was crushed and his left arm broken. It is thought he fell from a train.

FOUND DEAD IN THEIR HOME

Prominent South Carolina Farmer and His Wife Shot by Unidentified Parties.

Greenville, S. C., Sept. 7.—H. Milam Hellams, a prominent farmer of Laurens County, residing about thirty miles below this city, and his wife, were found dead in their home yesterday morning, according to a report reaching here. Death in each case was the result of a bullet wound in the head, though to have been inflicted with a pistol. Mystery surrounds the tragedy, since officers could discover no cause for the crimes, nor clue to the perpetrators. The discovery of an empty pistol in the house lent color to the theory of suicide, but the coroner's jury put little faith in this finding a verdict in which the crime was charged to unknown parties. Hellams was a Confederate veteran, and was sixty-eight years old.

NEWS OF THE DAY

Ten thousand and one persons were killed in the United States in railroad accidents in 1916 and 196,772 were injured, according to figures covering the year made public yesterday by the Interstate Commerce Commission. As usual the greater number were trespassers on railroad property. Passengers killed numbered 291; injured, 8,008; employes killed, 2,941; injured, 176,923; other persons, including trespassers, killed and injured number 6,769 and 11,791 respectively. These figures show an increase over 1915 of 1,371 killed and 34,835 injured.

With forced marches, meeting no resistance whatever from the Russians, the Teuton Eighth army that took Riga is swinging in a circular advance northeastward to force a Russian withdrawal from the entire Dwina line as far as Dwinsk, 140 miles southeast of Riga. From Riga to Friederichstadt (on the Dwina) a front of forty miles, the Muscovites are already in full flight. The Teutons are throwing division after division across the Dwina to push the pursuit. Automatcally the Russians are extending their front of retirement eastward to escape encirclement.

Men engaged in war work for the Y. M. C. A. or kindred organization will in no case be exempted from actual military service if they are physically fit and of age to serve. Notice to this effect was received from Provost Marshal General Crowder yesterday by Daniel J. Donovan, acting adjutant general for the District of Columbia. It places the association workers of Washington in the same general category as the District firemen and policemen whose pleas for exemption on the grounds that they are engaged in necessary industries have been overruled in every case.

An enthusiastic audience which taxed the capacity of the ballroom at Rauscher's, Washington, last night, assembled to honor the 160th birthday of the Marquis of Lafayette was thrilled when about thirty aviators and members of the French mission to this country sang the stirring words of "La Marseillaise" to music furnished by the United States Marine Band. Colors of America, France and England were used as decorations and the French hero, savior of the infant American republic, was lauded in speeches by prominent men and in the special program arranged by heads of all the patriotic societies in the city.

A series of thrilling experiences with German submarines and the rescue of 21 members of the crew of the French bark Magdalene, sunk by a submarine, are told by the crew of an American steamship which docked at an American port yesterday. Ten of the Magdalene's crew were killed and nine were wounded by shellfire. The rescue took place when the ship was about 120 miles southeast of the Azores. The Magdalene's survivors were landed at an Algerian port. They said that the German U-boat had sunk five other vessels within a short time.

The great war credits bill authorizing $11,538,945,460 in bonds and certificates, passed the House last night unanimously. Action by the Senate as soon as the pending war tax bill is disposed of is planned by administration leaders. Not a material amendment was added to the bill by the House. Representative Moore led a group of Republicans in a futile fight for consideration of his proposal for a war expenditures committee, which was thrown out on a point of order.
